GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

---

Anna Sarcich is a performing and working musician primarily and this may mean that lessons will have to be reorganised on occasion to allow her to participate in other work, such as WASO, PSO, Musical Theatre productions, concerts etc. Please have patience and understanding with this as freelance work is sometimes difficult to juggle.

Please make sure all equipment and music is brought to every lesson.

If you choose to be in my cello studio, you accept all of the above terms.

Mobile phone texting is the best way to contact me at all times (email for longer communications).
